Honorable, H. A. W. Skeen Judge of the circuit court for Lee County Virginia.

Your Orator; Nil Bowman, a citizen of Lee county Virginia, humbly complaining showeth to yor honor that he is now and has been for more than one year next before the bringing of this suit a citizen of Lee county Virginia.

That on tyhe _____ day of _____ 1902 Snedville Tenn. in ~~Harlan county Kentucky~~, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Bowman then Elizabeth Stewert in good faith, believing herto be a virtuous woman.

They lived together only a few days ~~only a few days~~ until your orator found her to be unchaste, and dicovered that she was in a pregnant ~~untrue to him and~~ condition. ~~was committing acts of adultery.~~

That on making this discovery he left her and has not lived with nor cohabited with her since nor had any thing whatever to do with her.

Since that time she has committed acts of adultery, this within the last five years, lived the life of a prostitute and given birth to two children by some man other than your orator, said acts of adultery were committet within five years before the bringing of this ~~this~~ suit and without your orators procure ment or connivance, To wit-

That On or about Sep. --1904 defendant was seen in the embrace of a man , on a hill near her home south of Jonesville, Va. and again about Oct. 1904 in a woodland on town branch south of Jonesville defendant was seen with her dress over her head and in the act of illicit intercourse with another man and also at other times and places.

Your orator avers that there has been no collusion whatever between him and the said Elizabeth Bowman to obtain a divorce.

That your orator is advised that he is entitled by law to obtain a divorce, from the said Elizabeth Bowman.

In consideration of all of which your orator prays that the said Elizabeth Bowman ^{to this lib.} be made a party defendant _r and be required to answer the same but not under oath, that being waived and that a divorce a vinculo matrimonii be granted him dissolving the ties of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between him and the said Elizabeth Bowman, and that full and general relief be granted and he will ever pray etc.

Sus. We did separate, about two weeks after we were married. I became convinced that she was pregnant, by some other man, and I told her I would not live with her any longer and that she could go home and she went, and I have not lived or cohabited with her since.

6 Did she afterward give birth to a child? If so give your information in regard to the date of its birth and the ^{length} ~~space~~ of time that ~~elapsed~~ ^{elapsed} between the date of your marriage and the time of its birth.
